

Thanksgiving Today in Georgetown

STATINTL

THANKSGIVING comes today to Georgetown. You'll be able to tour the dining rooms of ten fine old Georgetown homes.

Proceeds from the event, sponsored by the Georgetown Garden Club, will be used to erect a suitable monument to Miss Sarah Louise Rittenhouse in Montrose Park.

The Thanksgiving arrangements can be seen at the following homes, and tour tickets can be purchased at any of them: Miss Charlotte Phinney, 1516 29th st.; Mr. and Mrs. Francis Addison, jr., 1521 29th st.; Mr. and Mrs. Desmond FitzGerald, 1511 30th st.; Gen. and Mrs. Raymond E. Lee, 1344 30th st.; Mrs. Henry Leonard, 3038 N st.; Admiral and Mrs. Neill Phillips, 3053 P st.; Mr. and Mrs. Theodore W. Dominick, 1515 31st st.; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Friendly, 1645 31st st.; Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Butler, 1671 31st st.; and Gen.

Howard C. Davidson, 3238 R st.

Visitors are also invited to visit Dumbarton House, 2715 Que st., formerly the home of Miss Rittenhouse.

CPYRGHT